by Sharon Stringer

9th September 2020

We learned how to identify our best colours to create our best style and image using the Munsell system. Fab night enjoyed by all.

Some of our style icons still gorgeous with their masks

Hi there Jane

It was a real pleasure to finally meet you today. I just wanted to thank you again for the opportunity and say that I thoroughly and genuinely enjoyed my time with your group this evening, what a great bunch! Completely tempted to join!
