Mawsley Villagers Association Update

Older Play Area Update

Many thanks to Rob Bailey, Steve Beattie and John Barraclough who have all come forward to help with the final push for the older children's play area. We have met with the prime supplier to finalise designs; and are also looking at ways to cut costs (any savings vs. the bid budget will be put towards more equipment).

Also fighting our way through the admin.. In order to get a Landfill Tax grant, the MVA has had to become an EB (Environmental Body) – life gets more exciting every day! As you may expect, being an EB brings with it a nice long (10 actually) list of legal requirements. Looks like meeting regulation 33A(1)(aa) is the key one

New Urbanisms, New Citizens (NUNC) Research Project

Last December we reported on this University research project which involved young people who are living in new communities in Northamptonshire, including 68 from Mawsley. Some of you have been asking about the results of the research.

Last month the research team held a workshop to present their preliminary results to policy makers and planners around the country and two of our youngsters were on the youth panel at that workshop to describe their experience of being a young person in a new community.

We have been in touch with the researchers who have asked us to pass on their thanks to all the young people and adults in Mawsley who have taken part in the research. They will provide more detail about their results in our next News & Views. In the meantime you can read more about the project on their website www.newcitizens.wordpress.com

The MVA viewed by a resident

In the last few weeks I have attended three Mawsley Villagers Association meetings. One being the A.G.M on October 7th. A maximum of 13 people were present at each meeting.

Maybe we should give a second name to the Association and call it Mawsley Volunteers Association. Over the years volunteers have arranged many activities including fetes and firework displays. A trio of people run the youth club .

Mawsley is an almost complete community of busy multi- talented residents. Mawsley Villagers Association raises money for our Community groups and resources.

So reader, think of your skills and talents and be inspired to become a volunteer in Mawsley. The next Mawsley Villagers Association meeting is on Thursday November 15th at 8pm at The Centre.

We can't all be a Jessica Ennis or a Mo Farah, but we do have many skills and talents and perhaps a little time that Mawsley Villagers Association needs to make our village an even better place to live in.

Judy Baker

Baby & Toddler Group

The group meets every Thursday morning in term time from 9.15am to 11am at The Centre .

As the first term of the new look Mawsley Mums and Tots group draws to a close we would like to thank everyone who has helped to make it a great success. We have seen an increase in the number of children attending the group and are particularly pleased to have seen the baby area expand.

We have been visited by a representative of the SureStart Centre in Rothwell, and look forward to many more visits.

We hope those of you who were regulars at the group prior to September are still finding it enjoyable and entertaining for your little ones. We have had lots of positive feedback about the crafts and activities we have been providing. Next half term, which begins on Thursday November 8, our topic will be people who help us.

We want to say a huge thank you to everyone who has donated toys and equipment to the group and to all of those people who have helped to set up and clear away each week.

Contact: Laura on 07742 108488,
Anthea Cane: 07596 022525 or Mandy Priestley: 07716 116103.

Please note there will be no group on Thursday November 15.

.....and from the Chair

With regard to the AGM, it was really good to see a number of new faces there - keen to be involved in village life.

We discussed how the MVA can broaden its appeal to the village, so that still more villagers are directly involved. Hopefully we will also be able to resurrect the welcome pack that used to be given to every new resident.

But there's lots more we could do; we need new ideas and enthusiasm so why not come along to an MVA meeting as Judy suggests.

Re the mechanics of the meeting, I was elected Chair but the positions of Treasurer and Vice-Chair remain vacant.

Meet your new Parish Councillor

I am Christine McIvor and I have been a resident of Mawsley since December 2011. I moved back to Northamptonshire from Rutland to be nearer family. Before retiring I was a primary school teacher employed by Northamptonshire Education Authority and lived in Walgrave for a number of years, so am familiar with the surrounding area.

I have been involved in various areas of voluntary work and would like to become involved in my local community. Having developed an interest in issues affecting Mawsley, I hope to be able to contribute to the community in a constructive way. I would also like to take this opportunity to say thank you to the people of Mawsley for making me feel so welcome to the village.

The Parish Council has been concerned for some time that the Neighbourhood Watch Scheme set up in Mawsley many years ago may not still be functioning in all parts of the village and that some residents are unsure how they can become part of it.

So we have arranged a meeting for 12th Nov at 7pm, at The Centre, open to all existing co-ordinators and Neighbourhood Watch members and any resident concerned about making Mawsley a safer community to see if we can relaunch Neighbourhood Watch in Mawsley.

We have invited Jane Calcott, who is the Neighbourhood Watch Liaison Officer for North Northamptonshire, to the meeting to update and advise us and she will be accompanied by a member of the local police Safer Community Team. So come to the meeting whether you are simply interested in hearing advice about crime prevention, or want to join the Neighbourhood Watch scheme or to be a co-ordinator for your part of the village.

Mawsley Parish Council Update

Local Planning

You may remember from earlier reports that the Borough, working with other Councils in North Northamptonshire, has been drawing up plans for development over the next 20 years and that this Parish Council and many of you as individuals commented on those plans. The current draft strategy makes clear that Mawsley may see some growth and development over the next few years, but that it will be small scale and only what is necessary or desirable for Mawsley.

However our fears were raised recently by the sudden appearance of a new concept called "Principal Villages", of which Mawsley was designated to be one. Would this now mean a change to lots more development? Bob Littler and I attended a meeting recently with the Joint Planning Unit to clarify this. We have discovered that a 'Principle Village' is simply one which already provides facilities for a wider rural community. The good news is that this new concept does not change the intentions for Mawsley; we made various suggestions as to the wording of the draft strategy to make this explicit.

The local planning policy will no doubt be re-written many times before being finalised, but a clear intention exists to protect the fundamental essence of rural living and therefore our village.

Progress in Mawsley

It was great to have another update from Taylor Wimpey at our October meeting. This time, Regional Engineering Manager Chris Leeson was joined by Dominic Harman, the Managing Director of TW East Midlands, demonstrating their commitment to Mawsley. A report on progress and the programme of works is over the page, but I'd like to extend our thanks to TW for their continuing efforts and improvements in communication. It really helps.

Meetings and Minutes

After a year of more Bank Holiday Mondays than normal, we've recognised a difficulty in having the Parish Council meetings on the first Monday of every month. Rearranging the ones that coincide with a bank holiday and trying to make sure everyone knows about the new date has caused problems. So from January, our meetings will take place on the third Monday of every month. So the January meeting will be on Monday 21st. We've also taken some legal advice and are now putting the draft minutes up on the village website before they get approved at the next meeting. This minimises the delay between the discussions at a meeting and you being able to read about them. Any changes we might then need to make are minuted at the next meeting anyway, so you can keep yourself up to date if changes are made.

Report from Taylor Wimpey, East Midlands

Progress on programmed works

Taylor Wimpey is pleased to report that significant progress has been made with roads, verges and footpaths in Mawsley.

Phase 1 (Broughton Road) has been completed and Northamptonshire County Council will formally adopt the highway once it has fully checked the street lighting system.

Road surfacing works in Phase 2 (Main Street and The Green) have also been completed, and the county council will adopt these roads after Anglian Water has adopted the sewerage system.

Contractors are currently completing the roads in Phase 3 (Loddington Way), with work expected to finish before Christmas, weather permitting.

Phase 4 (School Road) and Phase 6 (Cransley Rise and Symonds Way) road surfacing has been completed and signed off by Northamptonshire County Council, in preparation for formal adoption which is, again, dependent on adoption of the sewerage system.

Road surfacing in Phase 5 (Hawthorn Avenue) and Phase 7 (Rose Hill Way and Long Breech) is expected to start in early 2013, subject to the highways authority's approval of designs.

The two foul water pumping stations, meanwhile, are on course to be formally adopted by Anglian Water in April 2013.

The transfer of the first of two phases of public open space, including the eco meadow, to Kettering Borough Council is expected to take place in early 2013.

The open spaces and verges in Mawsley are also being maintained on a regular basis.

To report issues or discuss any matters relating to the public works, please contact Taylor Wimpey's Regional Engineering Manager Chris Leeson on 0116 281 6400.

Editor: There is a more detailed report on these works on the village website as an appendix to the draft minutes of the Parish Council meeting held on 1st October.

The other appendix to those draft minutes is the report by Julia Beckett, Dep. Chief Executive at Kettering Borough Council clarifying the current status of the £5M Guarantee Bond put in place at the beginning of the Mawsley development. She reports that it was an agreement between the seller and the developer, that KBC was not a party to it and that it expired in 2010.

To read the draft minutes and these reports go to:

www.mawsleyvillage.co.uk

Choose Parish Council and then download the minutes.

I have found it very helpful to be able to access these minutes and documents so easily and so soon after the meeting. Thanks go to Duncan Webster and 1PCS for providing us with such a user-friendly village website and to the Parish Council for making the information available in full.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Madam...

Bob Littler is the one talking nonsense [News & Views September] to claim that "irresponsible parking slows traffic down, there haven't been any accidents in 10 years and if there were, they would be at low speed so no real damage."

Parking problems cause impatient drivers to increase speed and the risk of accidents.

Bob also overlooks the fact that traffic has increased over the last 10 years with the shop, surgery, additional housing and the school.

I lived in a village which was also accident free for 15 years until my young daughter was hit by a car, travelling at an inappropriate speed.

This so called low speed, resulted in a serious injury, 3 major operations and 4 months in hospital.

This should not happen to a child in Mawsley, whilst we are a community that is caring, concerned about road safety and that we will not accept the risk, however small that might be, just based on Bob Littler's assumptions.

Valerie Sanders

Editor: News & Views will take a break from parking and speeding for a while so I asked Bob if he would like to respond to Val's letter before the subject is closed.

I have been trying to get traffic to slow down in the village for over 10 years, with only limited success.

My fundamental point is that a relatively small increase in speed – just 10 mph, say from 30 to 40 – causes a massive increase in the severity of accidents. Of course any accident, even at very low speeds, may cause horrific injuries; and I do understand how Val feels – from my personal experience in my family.

I do disagree with Val, though, on the impact of parked cars; open roads give room to go faster. However, regardless of which of us is right, it's a no-win situation if drivers don't take responsibility for their own behaviour into their own hands.

And that means all of us.

Bob Littler

Get the agent right, get the asking price right!

Sellers are being warned not to risk over-pricing during the autumn market, following stark new research. New research from Rightmove finds that 62% of home-hunters state they will not carry out a viewing on a property they consider to be over-priced, even if the property ticks all the boxes on their wish-list.

Rightmove's research, carried out as part of its Market Intelligence campaign, finds that only 38% of home-movers would actually go and view a property they consider to be over-priced before deciding whether to put in a lower offer, even though sellers often price with a view to negotiating downwards.

Rightmove director Miles Shippside advises "It can be tempting for sellers to price high on the assumption that they are giving themselves room for negotiation. However, our findings indicate that this can be a risky business and is likely to deter some six in ten potential buyers who might otherwise have visited the property without hesitation. Price is obviously a critical issue for both buyers and sellers in the current market, but it's much harder for a potential buyer to fall in love with a property if the asking price deters them from even setting foot through the front door"

Among the 62% of respondents who would not go and view a property they felt was over-priced, 20% stated they would make an enquiry to the estate agent to find out if the vendor would accept offers under. This would indicate that, for sellers, prior discussion with your agent about how much you are prepared to negotiate is important.

The internet is playing an ever bigger part in the marketing of your property. In many cases your home is being seen thousands of times a week online. It is vital to use an estate agent that understands the power of this medium and how to use it in order to get the best results. Horts Estate Agents has just added Zoopla.com to complement the existing brands of Rightmove.co.uk, Findaproperty.com and Primelocation.com.

Desperately need more three, four and five bedroom two storey properties in Old Gorse Way for waiting buyers.

Also require smaller two and three bedroom properties anywhere in the village for our bank of investors.

If you are considering selling it is currently a strong time to market. The village has very few resale properties available for it's size and the enquiries are back up to peak levels.

Please call on the numbers above for your free no obligation valuation.

CHRISTMAS TREE & LIGHTS PROJECT

A Big Thank you to Mawsley!!

I am glad to report that we have raised enough money in kind donations, including a donation of the tree itself from Richard Barnwell, to be able to move forward and plan the following:-

1. The tree area: this needs repairing and preparing to receive the new tree
2. Lights – these need to be purchased and put up

I am so pleased that this project has generated such a lot of goodwill and enthusiasm and the donations from local clubs and local people have been overwhelming. We really hope to see all of you at the dedication and switching on of the tree lights which, as advertised in last issue of the village magazine, will take place on 1st December - at 5.15pm as part of the children's Christmas party.

If you can spare any time to assist with any of the above tasks, please contact Vic Cope on 799643.

Mawsley Community Primary School Update

Our 2012-13 school year is now in full flow, in fact we are nearing half term! As many of you will know we are edging closer to the completion of our final extension, which will enable our school to support 14 classes. This reflects the rapid transformation of the school over the last 3 years in particular, and the 8 years since its opening. The staff and children have understandably found it challenging to maintain normality with all the building work and will be glad to see the building work finally finished. The children have coped admirably with the restrictions and noisy interruptions and they are excited about the opening of three new classes and having a new playground. We would also like to thank all the parents and the community for their patience during the build. We thank you for your understanding and your diligence.

The school year began with our Year 6 children going off for their three day residential visit to Condover Hall in Shropshire. An action packed few days saw the children take part in lots of inspirational, challenging and memorable activities.

Following the incredible success of the London Olympics and to utilise our new equipment (obtained after sports-day) we have decided to run an indoor athletics and a tag rugby club before school. It has been very pleasing to see the number of children keen to take part.

We are very keen at Mawsley to maintain the attitude and mindset that the country developed during the Olympics. We strive to provide our children with the opportunity to develop not only their physical and mental abilities but to learn the value of and experience the nature of competition.

Our football team has started its defence of its championship and I'm glad to report we remain unbeaten after 3 weeks of competition, conceding only 2 goals in that time. As champions we probably have to work harder as teams raise their game against us but the children have responded wonderfully well. We continue to play to a high standard with a commitment to passing short rather than long and an emphasis on success through teamwork. The behaviour and attitude of the children is a testament to the school and they have been superb role models to others.

Message from PC Penhallow

Burglary has been a key feature in recent weeks and months, as well as vehicle crime. Operations are still ongoing with patrols in and around Mawsley.

Please make sure you keep your properties and vehicles secure at all times and please don't leave items on display. With winter rapidly approaching and both the nights and weather closing in please make sure you check your vehicles to keep them safe and road legal. This is important at any time of year, but the weather and darkness increase the hazards.

INSPIRING WOMEN

Thanks to everyone who came along to the Handbag and Purse Sale and hope you bagged a bargain! It is a big help to us as we have to always think of new ways to fundraise. We need this to keep afloat as we like to have good speakers and they don't come cheap, so please continue to support us at our various events.

Talking of which, at our November meeting, we have a lady coming to talk to us about her book 'The Making of Miranda' which details her life from He to She and it's the most marvellous story. It may be pushing the boundaries but sometimes that's the thing to do. If you find this snippet interesting do come along to the meeting on the 14th at 10am.

We welcome any ladies who would like to come along to our meetings. We are a friendly group and welcome anyone new to the village or out of it! Refreshments are included in the admission fee of £3.

The Coffee Club

There is a busy time coming up for Mawsley Coffee Club as we approach the Christmas season. Before our festivities begin, we are visiting Glebe Farm for afternoon tea in November and have had our monthly coffee morning in October at Greentrunks Garden Centre in Cransley.

Some of our members went to the Springfield's Shopping Centre in Spalding for some retail therapy, and by all accounts had a great time. There has also been a visit to the Royal and Derngate Theatre in Northampton with an exclusive conducted tour behind the scenes, with the theatre's Resident Storyteller and guide.

AUTUMN OFFER

Take advantage of a discount on GreenFeat's 'No Obligation' design fees this autumn.

The cold, wet and cloud is arriving (or has arrived!) so starting work on your garden may not seem like the best thing to be doing just now BUT preparing and designing ahead, ready for next Spring could be exactly right.

GreenFeat will work with you on ideas and a design to improve part or all of your garden in a professional way. We will take you through the process of selecting your preferred materials for any paving, decking, planting, timber work and lighting required until you are satisfied with the design. We will then supply you with a detailed design brief and 'no obligation' quote

If you then decide to contract with GreenFeat to carry out the work when the weather improves you will be ready to go, ahead of the game and first in the queue.

Discount applies to design work carried out in 2012.

- ◆ All types of construction
- ◆ A design to suit your lifestyle
- ◆ Qualified reliable staff
- ◆ Completed gardens can be viewed

Space

It is the time of year when our thoughts as a church well and truly turn to others. We are once again participating in the Operation Christmas Child shoe box appeal and will be holding a special Remembrance Day service on Sunday November 11.

Last year we collected over 60 shoe boxes, filled with toys and essentials, which were distributed in 15 different countries around the world.

This year we are appealing for every family in the village to fill a shoe box to be given to children who otherwise wouldn't get a gift this Christmas.

Rev'd Richard Priestley has already been in to Mawsley Primary School to launch our appeal and distribute information about how to fill the shoe boxes. If you missed this or don't have children at the school, information about how to participate in Operation Christmas Child 2012 is available at www.operationchristmaschild.org.uk We will be collecting shoe boxes in November and will hold a special service at the Centre as we send them on their way.

The village will once again come together to remember our fallen war heroes at a special service around the flag pole (on the traffic island outside the Centre) on Sunday November 11 at 10.30am. The service will be attended by all of the village's uniformed groups and everyone is invited to lay a poppy or a wreath beneath the pole to commemorate our war dead.

In addition to these special services Mawsley Church will meet for our usual services every Sunday at 10.30am at the Centre and hold the usual house groups during the week. More information about all of Mawsley Church's activities are available from Rev'd Richard Priestley or Rev'd Mandy Priestley on 01536 790140.
